INDEX to the TWENTY-THIRD VOLUME.

A. Page

ABBEY. Ford Abbey, in Devonſhire, the hiſtory of its foundation and founders —— —— 273

Abſtract of two late acts concerning the pay, privileges, and duty of a militia-man —— —— 167

—— of Dr. Jortin's life of Eraſmus 189, 220

Acroſtics —— —— 252, 312

Addreſs, the ſecond, of the Commons againſt the Duke of York's marriage, and his Majeſty's anſwer 18.—Of the Houſe of Lords againſt the Papiſts 20.—A long one, preſented by the Commons to the King, againſt the Duke of Lauderdale 72.—To his preſent Majeſty, on the taking of Cape Breton, from the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London 97.—On the taking of the ſame, from the univerſity of Cambridge and the city of Briſtol 145.—On the ſame, from Oxford 207.—Of the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament 266.—From a Gentleman and Lady's ſkull to their male and female viſitants 308.

Ænigma's —— 144, 252, 312

Algernon. See Sidney.

Amherſt, General, his letter to Mr. Secretary Pitt, being a journal of the ſiege of Louiſburg 89.—The thanks of the Houſe of Commons ordered to be given him 313.

Amphyctions, an account of their Council, &c. from Dr. Leland's hiſtory of the life and reign of Philip, King of Macedon —— —— —— 34

Anecdotes concerning Dr. Boerhaave's management of the gout —— 345

Anſwer to a rebus 85.—To another 137.—To another 363.—To another ib.—To another ib.—To a queſtion 203.—To a mathematical queſtion 313.—To a riddle 252.—To an ænigma 364.—To another ib.

Ariſtodemus, a philoſophical dialogue between him and Socrates —— 140

Army, the allied, an account of its repaſſing the Rhine, and its other motions 86

Arts, mechanic, reflections on their great utility and importance —— 1

Aſh-tree, ſome properties of it diſcovered 337.—Its lixivious ſalt preſcribed, with ſucceſs, againſt a difficulty or ſuppreſſion of urine, and worms in children ib.

Aulic Council, its reſolution againſt his Pruſſian Majeſty 196.—Remarks on the proceedings of the ſaid Council againſt the Elector of Hanover 197.

B. Page

Ballad, a new one —— —— 139

Bankrupts 46, 102, 159, 214, 270, 325

Bark, its efficacy in a mortification 22

Bath rake, the progreſs of —— 310

Bay, St. Cas. See Cas.

Births — 45, 101, 157, 213, 269, 325

Blackſtone, Dr. his demonſtration of the utility of a general acquaintance with the laws of the land —— 238

Boerhaave, Dr. ſome remarkable paſſages of his life and death —— 291

Books, liſt of 47, 103, 159, 215, 271, 317

Boſcawen, Admiral, his memorable exploits 125.—His deſcent ib.—His marriage and iſſue 127.—His promotions ib.—The thanks of the Houſe of Commons to him, with his anſwer 313.

Bricks, method of making them and tiles 204

Brief, addreſſed by the Pope to the Empreſs-queen of Hungary —— 259

Britain, Great, a brief review of the queſtion, Whether it be for her intereſt to ſend forces abroad to aſſiſt her German allies? —— —— 73

Buckingham, Duke of, the Commons queries to him, and his anſwers 21

C.

Cas, St. bay of, an account of our diſaſter there 152.—Plan of St. Cas bay 244.

Cherburg, the demoliſhing of its baſon, piers, harbour, batteries, forts, magazines, and ſtores 94.—An account of its ſituation, extent, ſtrength, &c. 95.

Chloe's dream, a new country dance 310

Cock Padda, or Rice bird, deſcribed, and coloured from nature —— 74

Come if you can, a new country dance 32

Commodore Howe's ramble, a new country dance —— —— 249

Conſcience, thoughts on, relatively to the wiſe conduct of Providence in puniſhing guilt —— —— 345

Contraſt, a —— —— 200

Cork waiſtcoat, to preſerve from drowning 357

Cornwall, an account of the manners of its inhabitants —— —— 174

Court characters —— 311

Czar's character. See Ruſſia.

D.

Dances, new country ones 32, 83, 139, 200, 249, 310, 362

Deaths 46, 102, 158, 214, 269, 325

Decree, Imperial, of commiſſion, lately ſent to the Dyet of the empire — 33

Dialogue, a favourite one ſet to muſic, between Belinda and Amelia — 309

Domin on

Page

Dominion of man over the brute creation 165

Dudley caſtle and priory deſcribed. See Staffordſhire.

E.

Electricity, ſome ſurpriſing effects of 280

England, hiſtory of, continued 16, 67, 127, 180, 232, 292, 347

Enterpriſe, an authentic account of the late, againſt the coaſt of France 25.—The damage done to the French ſhips, &c. 27.

Epilogue, addreſſed to the Ladies, at a rehearſal of Terence's Andria 202.—To the tragedy of Cleone 290.

Epithalamium, an ——— 201

Eraſmus, his life by Dr. Jortin 189.—He is forced into a monaſtery, which he quits, and goes to Paris 190.—His kindly reception at Rome 191.—He is made Counſellor to the Arch-duke of Auſtria, with a ſtipend of 200 florins 192.—Francis I. invites him into France 193.—He is attacked by Lee 194.—His defence of Luther, at Cologne, againſt the Pope's Nuncio, 195.—He ingenuouſly owns his timidity 196.—His death and will, with a deſcription of his perſon and character 220, 226.

Eſtimate of the Manners and Principles of the Times, the general explanatory Defence of, by the author 10.—particular Defence 14.—The ſame finiſhed 52.—His character of a late famous Miniſter defended 53.

Extracts of letters: From Louiſburg 98, 101.—From an Officer in the late expedition againſt the coaſt of France 146.—From Berlin 154.—From Barbadoes 203.—From Bradwell juxta Mare 258.

F.

Fair, the poſitive, a ſong —— 361

Ferdinand, Prince of Brunſwic, his anſwer to Baron Spoercken, concerning the complaints made to the States-general of diſorders committed near Venlo by perſons belonging to his army — 156

Forces. See Britain.

Ford-Abbey. See Abbey.

Fragment of the late Mrs. Pilkington's, never publiſhed —— —— 84

Frontenac, fort, taken —— 263

Frontiſpieces prefixed to Mr. Pope's Eſſay on Man, a critico-moral diſcourſe on 274

G.

Geographical deſcriptions of the circles of the Upper and Lower Rhine, Swabia, Franconia, Burgundy, Lorrain, &c. with a new and accurate map of thoſe countries, and others adjacent — 105

Gout, Dr. Boerhaave's management of it 291, 345

Page

Gouvernante, Princeſs, her ſpeech to their High Mightineſſes on the augmentation required in the troops of the republic 99.—To the ſame on the memorial of the merchants 324.

H.

Hanover. See Aulic Council.—A geographical deſcription of it, with a new and accurate map ——— 253

Happy cobler, a new country dance 362

Hoch-Kirch, an account of the battle of 210

Hollanders, remarks on their diſmal outcries againſt our ſhips of war 65.—On their preſent proceedings in aſſiſting our enemies 136.—Their claim to protect French property fully ſtated and refuted 357.—See Provinces, United.

Horace, book II. ode 2. imitated — 30

Hymn in praiſe of Socrates's heroic contempt of death 33.—In honour of heroic virtue 81.

I. J.

Jackey Stuart's reel, a new country dance 139

Idlers ——— —— 237, 305

Indigo plant, coloured from nature and deſcribed ——— 185

Inſcription on the pier at Cherburg 101

July, the glorious 26th of —— 84

K.

Keyſler. See Quickſilver and Stag's-horn.

L.

Languages, ſome curious reflections on their uſe to diſcover the origin of nations 337

Letter from a Pruſſian Officer concerning the battle of Zorndorff 149.—Two from the King of Pruſſia to his Miniſters at foreign Courts 156.—From the Mate of an Eaſt-India ſhip to his wife 355.—From the States-general to the States of Holland and Weſt Friſeland 364.

Liſt of French ſhips of war and frigates taken or deſtroyed by the Engliſh in the preſent war 213.—Of Engliſh ſhips taken or loſt ib.—Of ſubſcribers to the Magdalen Charity 255.—Of tickets in the laſt State-lottery intitled to prizes 307.

Louiſburg, an account of its ſurrender by capitulation 88. See alſo Amherſt.

M.

Machines, obſervations on the theory of ſuch as are ſet in motion by the wind; with the deſcription of a mill, curiouſly engraved, whoſe wings turn horizontally ——— ——— 350

Mackenzie, Dr. his precepts of health peculiar to infancy, youth, manhood, and old-age ——— ——— 245

Manakin, a bird, the purple-breaſted blue, coloured

THE INDEX.

Page

coloured from nature and deſcribed 304
Manifeſto publiſhed in Britany by the Duke of Marlborough —— 43
Marriages 45, 101, 157, 213, 269, 325
Martinico iſland, an account of, with its principal forts, harbours, rivers, produce, &c. —— 302
Melitus's charge againſt Socrates, with Socrates's defence —— 23
Memorial, Dutch, preſented to the States-general by 269 merchants 41.—To the Princeſs Gouvernante 316. See Provinces, United, and Hollanders.—By the Saxon Miniſter to the Dyet, concerning the burning of the ſuburbs of Dreſden 318.—By the Pruſſian Miniſter, in anſwer to it 319, 365.
Meteorological journals of the weather 47, 103, 159, 215, 271, 317
Mill. Mr. Lyon's ſteel mill, a deſcription of it 33.—Of another, whoſe wings turn horizontally 350.
Monitors —— 242, 260, 314, 371
More, Sir Thomas, his life 74.—His probity and patriotiſm 75.—He is made Treaſurer of the Exchequer 76.—Upon Wolſey's fall, he is made Lord Chancellor 79.—He diſcharges this high office with the utmoſt honour and integrity 80.—His reaſons, in his Utopia, to prove the unlawfulneſs, as well as bad policy, of taking away men's lives for theft and robbery 110.—Why he delivers his ſentiments in the perſon of Raphael, a fictitious character 112.—The tranſlator of the Utopia's arguments on the ſame ſide of the queſtion ib.—His trial and defence 116.—His condemnation, ſentence, and ſpeech to the Lords who condemned him 117.—His execution, a deſcription of his perſon, and an account of his works 118.
Muſeum, Britiſh, abſtract of the ſtatutes and rules relating thereto —— 369
Muſic, ſongs, dances, &c. ſet to 31, 32, 82, 83, 138, 139, 199, 200, 248, 249, 309, 310, 361, 362

N.

News foreign and domeſtic. See Political ſtate of Europe.

O.

Oberg, General, relation from his camp at Gunterſheim of his defeat by the French 211
Ode for his Majeſty's birth-day, Nov. 10, 1758 250.—For the new year 1759 360.—To Neptune, for the ſame year 364.
Oeconomy, moral —— 83
Oſborne, Admiral, his anſwer to the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons — 313

P.

Paradiſe regained —— 252

Page

Parliament, Britiſh, an hiſtorical account of the proceedings of the laſt ſeſſion 5, 59, 119, 168
Paſtoral —— —— 201
Petition of priſoners for debt —— 257
Phalanx, Macedonian, a curious deſcription of —— —— 37
Plan of St. Cas Bay. See Cas.—The plan, a new ſong —— 31
Plot, Oates's, an account of — 347
Poetry — 29, 81, 137, 199, 249, 308
Political ſtate of Europe 39, 85, 151, 208, 263, 321
Pompadour, the Marchioneſs of, her hiſtory —— —— 297, 339
Preferments 46, 102, 158, 214, 269, 325
Prologue to Cleone 283.—To the Miſer, acted for the benefit of the Aſylum 312.
Promotions 46, 102, 158, 214, 270, 325
Providence. See Conſcience.
Provinces, United, the riſe of that republic 132.—William of Naſſau, Prince of Orange, the founder thereof 134.—Queen Eliſabeth's conſtant friendſhip and aſſiſtance to the diſtreſſed States 135.—Remarks on the preſent proceedings of the Dutch in aſſiſting our enemies 136. See Hollanders, Gouvernante, and Memorial.
Pruſſia, King of, compared with Philip King of Macedon 39.—Verſes on him 137, 363.—Compared with Cæſar 306.
Pſalm CXXXIX. verſified —— 249

Q.

Queries of the Commons to the Duke of Buckingham, and his anſwers — 21
Queſtions —— 84, 202, 252
Quickſilver, mines of, at Idra, a town of the dutchy of Carniola in Germany, deſcribed by Keyſler in his Travels 58

R.

Rebus's —— —— 85, 202
Relation, authentic, of what paſſed at the King of Pruſſia's army ſince the battle of Zorndorff, till the action of the 14th of October 1758 —— 263
Royal midſhipman, a country dance 200
Ruſſia, Lord Whitworth's account of it, as it was in the year 1710 227.—The empire of Muſcovy, and the ſeveral ſorts of its inhabitants, deſcribed 228.—A deſcription of the three ranks of Muſcovites 229.—Their religion and government 230.—The Czar's character, with an account of his Court, and of Prince Menzikoff, his chief favourite 231.—Characters of ſome of the Czar's Miniſters 278.—The commercial coin of Muſcovy, the goods imported and exported, the Czar's revenues ib.—His forces, land and naval 279.

S. Sailors,

S.

Page

Sailors, Engliſh, reflections on the confinement of ſo great a number in France 57
Shepherd and the ſea, a poem — 362
Sidney, Algernon, Eſq; his life 329.—His birth, education, and promotions ib.—He is ſent Commiſſioner to the Sound ib.—He continues abroad by reaſon of the reſtoration of Charles II. 330.—He is pardoned, and returns ib.—He is accuſed of being concerned in the Ryehouſe plot 331.—His trial and condemnation, together with ſome remarkable incidents ib.—His ſpeech delivered to the Sheriffs at his execution 335.—His character as drawn by Biſhop Burnet 336.—An account of his writings 337.
Silence in love —— —— 33
Socrates, his defence againſt the charge of Melitus 23.—His ſpeech to his Judges 24.—His laſt ſpeech to his weeping friends 25.—Hymn in praiſe of his heroic contempt of death 33.—A beautiful deſcription of the ſweet and unruffled eaſe he enjoyed while he ſlept 83.—A dialogue between him and Ariſtodemus 140.
Soliloquy written in a country church-yard 29
Song, a new one, in imitation of Horace, book V. ode 15. 32.—Another ſung at Vauxhall ib.—Another ſet to muſic 82.—Another from Anacreon 84.—Another 137.—Another ſet to muſic 138.—Another 139.—Another, in honour of the King of Pruſſia, ſet to muſic 199.—Another 202.—Another ſet to muſic 248.—Another 251.—Another ſet to muſic 361.
Speech of Charles II. and the Chancellor 17.—Of the Lords Commiſſioners for holding the Parliament 265.

Page

Staffordſhire, an account of, illuſtrated with a new and accurate map of that county 49.—It is watered by twenty-four rivers ib.—Its ſubterraneous productions 50.—Litchfield deſcribed 51, 161.—Its antiquity 51.—Country ſeats near it 162.—Stafford, the county town, its incorporation and government ib.—Dudley-caſtle deſcribed 165.—A perſpective view of Dudley priory, with a deſcription thereof 217.—The caſtle and honour of Tutbury, and two remarkable uſages anciently thereto belonging 218.
Stag's-horn deſcribed by Keyſler — 59
Suſpiria, occaſioned by the death of Charles Spencer, the late Duke of Marlborough 251

T.

Ticonderoga, an account of General Abercromby's diſaſter near it —— 96
Tiles. See Bricks.
Tragedy of Cleone, an account of 283
Tunbridge verſes —— 362
Tutbury. See Staffordſhire.
Tyrrel, Richard, Eſq; a particular account of the engagement (which happened to the leeward of Montſerrat the 3d of November, 1758) between him, in his Majeſty's ſhip Buckingham of 65 guns, and three French men of war — 354

V.

Viner, a ſhort account of his will and effects —— —— 281

W.

Worceſterſhire, the origin of tradeſmens tokens, lately found in it, with figures thereof —— —— 180

Z.

Zorndorff battle, an account of — 151

Directions to the BINDER, for placing the Cuts in this Twenty-third Volume.

Page

THE frontiſpiece to face the title
The head of John Maitland, Duke of Lauderdale —— —— 16
Mr. Lyon's ſteel mill —— 33
A map of Staffordſhire —— 49
The Cock Padda, or Rice Bird — 72
A new and accurate map of the ſouth-weſt part of Germany, comprehending the circles of the Upper and Lower Rhine, Swabia, Franconia, Burgundy, Lorrain, and countries adjacent, exhibiting the preſent ſeat of war —— 105
The head of Admiral Boſcawen — 125
A perſpective view of Dudley-caſtle in the county of Stafford —— 161

Page

The indigo plant —— —— 185
A kiln for burning tile and brick — 204
A perſpective view of Dudley priory, in the county of Stafford —— 217
Plan of St. Cas bay —— 244
A new map of the electorate of Hanover 253
A perſpective view of Ford-Abbey, in the county of Devon —— —— 273
The head of James Duke of Monmouth 292
The purple-breaſted blue Manakin 304
Head of Algernon Sidney, Eſq; — 329
Repreſentation of a mill whoſe wings turn horizontally — — — 352